User Declaration

for the use of the following reproductions of archival material from the Bavarian State Archives:

.....
.....

I will not utilize any information obtained by me through the use of the archival material that identifies individual persons or third parties, unless the persons concerned (i.e. all the individuals for which there can be found information in the archival materials) or third parties have agreed to the utilization of their information or they have been deceased for more than 10 years. If the date of death cannot be ascertained, the information will be protected for 110 years after the birth date of the person concerned. In all other cases, I will obtain the written approval of the Generaldirektion der Staatlichen Archive Bayerns, Schönfeldstraße 5, 80539 Munich, before publishing any personal information. I will comply with copyright restrictions and privacy laws.

If I am given working copies of this archival material, I will use them only for the specific purpose below. I will not provide working copies to third parties. In case I intend to publish reproductions of the archival material, I will contact the Generaldirektion der Staatlichen Archive Bayerns, Schönfeldstraße 5, 80539 Munich directly in order to apply for the necessary publication permission.

I will acknowledge the Generaldirektion der Staatlichen Archive Bayerns, Schönfeldstraße 5, 80539 Munich as the source in any publication that uses information from this archival material, and will cite the name of the source archive as well as the archival signature (record group number) assigned by the source archive, as applicable.

I will not hold the Bavarian State Archives or the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum responsible for any claims of copyright infringement or violation of privacy rights that may result from my use of this archival material.

I understand that this User Declaration is subject to German law and that the place of jurisdiction is Munich.

I understand that the Museum may provide my name and the purpose of this use of the archival material to the Bavarian State Archives.
